Parish School of Religion News: Just as Jesus had promised, on Pentecost the Holy Spirit came to the apostles to strengthen and guide them. In a similar way, at Confirmation the Holy Spirit comes to strengthen and empower the confirmed so that they, too, can carry on the work of Jesus. Today May 21, these students were "sealed with the Holy Spirit": Benjamin Davis, Ariza DiBella, William Hurst, Robert Lee, Carmen Lopez-Fernandez, John McDonald, Gabriel Mogzecz, Nicholas Smole, Anya Sokolowski, Anna Tiller, Patricia Tiller, Joaquin Vega de las Casas, and Alejandro Wissman. Congratulations to them all! And a special thank you from everyone in the PSR to the wonderful ladies of the Mother Butler Guild. They prepared and hosted beautiful receptions for our First Communion and Confirmation students and their families.

Sick Calls: Please email us at stann@stanndc.org, to notify the Pastor of any sick, homebound or those hospitalized, so that we may arrange to bring them the Eucharist or the Sacrament of the Sick.

Respect Life News: The local branch of Birthright has moved to 2915-F Olney-Sandy Spring Road, Olney, Maryland. It's phone number is (301) 570-3339; its website is birthrightmc.org. Birthright, for those who may not be familiar with the organization, is a pro-life non-profit group dedicated to promoting alternatives to abortion. It was founded in 1968 by Louise Summerhill, a mother of seven, in East York, Canada, (well before the U.S. Supreme Court's 1973 Roe v. Wade decision) It has branches in the U.S., Canada and Africa. Its mission statement reads: "[it] provides free pregnancy tests, maternity assistance, baby clothes, advice on medical help, social services, [c]ounselors on the physical and psychological effects of abortion [and] assists relationships." Since 2007, its executive director has been Carole Buchanan. Its board of directors consists of eleven unpaid volunteers among whom recently, was Monsignor Edward Filardi, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes parish in Bethesda. The group is staffed mostly by unpaid volunteers, among whom, for a number of years, was the late St. Ann parishioner Ann Rowan, wife of the late Tom Rowan, long time editor of the Catholic Standard and coordinator of the St. Ann Respect Life committee. The Birthright home page, addressing women who may be considering abortion, reads in part: "At Birthright, you won't find anyone judging you or telling you what to decide. There's no hype, no politics.... we're here to provide you with...medically accurate information....we understand that sometimes you need a place to process everything, to think through all your options, to feel safe to share what's on your mind." The home page also lists a national hotline to help pregnant women: 1(800) 550-4900. Parishioners interested in volunteering at Birthright should call Ms. Buchanan at the number mentioned above.

New Miscarriage Sections at Catholic Cemeteries: According to the American Academy of Family Physicians, nearly one in four women experience an early pregnancy loss in her lifetime. Yet, women who lose their baby in the first trimester often do not know their right to claim and respectfully bury what the medical community calls "the product of conception" after a miscarriage. No matter how early the loss, many Catholic couples long to name, inter, and remember their baby as an eternal member of the family. Catholic Cemeteries now offers burial options to answer that great desire of their hearts. For more information on the new Miscarried Baby Sections at Catholic Cemeteries, contact your parish priest or the manager at Gate of Heaven Cemetery (13801 Georgia Ave., Silver Spring, MD; 301-871-6500); Resurrection Cemetery (8000 Woodyard Rd., Clinton, MD; 301-868-5141); All Souls Cemetery (11401 Brink Rd., Germantown, MD; 301-428-1995), or St. Mary's Queen of Peace Cemetery (38888 Dr. Johnson Rd., Mechanicsville, MD; 301-475-5005).

National Catholic Prayer Breakfast: The 13th Annual National Catholic Prayer Breakfast is on Tuesday, June 6 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in Washington DC. An impressive list of speakers highlight a program that attracts lay and religious leaders, as well as political figures. The event is non-partisan, and anyone is welcome to attend. Human Trafficking: It happens here, but we can stop it! Human trafficking is a gross violation of human rights that hides behind the silence of its victims. Sadly, the state of Maryland is not immune from this grave injustice, but we can help! We may feel that the enormity of this crime against humanity cannot be stopped by our own small efforts, but even one life saved is a powerful change. Maryland's Catholic bishops recently issued a statement to raise awareness about human trafficking and to urge all Maryland's Catholics to attend a free regional informational session called "Proclaiming Liberty to Captives." It will be presented by the Maryland Human Trafficking Task Force and local experts who will provide effective tools for combating human trafficking in our local communities. Sessions will be held in both English and Spanish. Do not miss this opportunity to learn about human trafficking and ways you can help end it in Maryland! Visit website at www.mdccathcon.org/humantrafficking to RSVP for the information session in your region and for a list of other sessions that you may attend.
