Respect Life News: On May 23 the president's 2018 federal budget proposal was released. A rider in the proposal, the Washington Post reports, "would bar the" District "from using any funding—local or federal—to carry out the" assisted suicide "law," the so called "Death with Dignity" Act (DWDA) or "to implement its rules and regulations." The DWDA was signed into law by the mayor last December. The budget must be approved by both the House and the Senate, however, before it takes effect; moreover, the DWDA "is to take effect October 1, the same day "the federal budget" takes effect. Proponents of "medical aid-in-dying" (another euphemistic whopper), such as the Oregon based "Compassion & Choices" (C&C) are doing everything they can to thwart opponents of the law. They have announced that they will be working "with key members of Congress to ensure that this provision [the rider] is not included in any final legislation". Such "key members" especially are those in the six states where physician assisted suicide is legal (Oregon, California, Washington, Montana, Colorado, Vermont). C&C also asserted recently: "if...opponents in Congress overturn D.C.'s law, it will embolden them to try to ban medical aid-in-dying in every jurisdiction nationwide." It is essential, therefore, that parishioners contact members of Congress to urge them to oppose the DWDA and to include the rider in the final budget. To contact the mayor soon is also very necessary, since the city must "create a way for doctors to document requests for life-ending drugs and for the city's medical examiner to create methods to report such deaths." Physician training systems" must also be developed. A start-up cost of $125,000 would be required and the mayor said she would use existing city funds to meet this requirement before "Congress has passed its budget." It is important to contact the mayor to express strong opposition to such a use of taxpayer money (Washington Post, 5.23.2017; Compassion & Choices e-mail, ca. 5.25.2017; Congresswoman Norton's e-newsletter, 5.30.17). For non-constituents, it is better to phone members of Congress. The Capitol switchboard number is (202) 224-3121. The Bipartisan Congressional Pro-Life Caucus number is (202) 225-3765. An area member is Rep. Andy Harris, M.D. (R-MD): (202) 225-5311. Co-Chairmen are Chris Smith (R-NJ): (202) 225-3765; Daniel Lipinski (D- Ill.): (202) 225-3765. To phone the Mayor's office, dial 311; website: mayor.dc.gov.

Peter's Pence Collection: On the weekend of June 24-25, the Archdiocese of Washington will take up the Peter's Pence second collection. Gifts to this annual collection help the Holy Father support victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need of assistance. In responding to those who are suffering, Our Lord teaches us, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). In his 2016 Urbi et Orbi address, Pope Francis declared, "The Lord . . . enables us to see with his eyes of love and compassion those who hunger and thirst, strangers and prisoners, the marginalized and the outcast, the victims of oppression and violence." Our participation in this collection gives us an opportunity to be a witness of Our Lord's love and mercy for the vulnerable and suffering around the world. Please give generously as you are able.

Fatima Worldwide Children's Holy Hour at the Basilica: The International World Apostolate of Fatima's children's program, Children of the Eucharist, Young Missionaries of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, cordially invites everyone to gather your children and make a pilgrimage to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, on Friday, October 13, 10:00am. This will mark the 15th annual Worldwide Children's Eucharistic Holy Hour, in honor of the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima. EWTN will broadcast to over 140 nations. As you know on this recent May 13th. at Fatima, Portugal, the Holy Father Pope Francis canonized the Little Shepherds of Fatima, now Saint Francisco Marto and Saint Jacinta Marto. At Fatima, our Blessed Mother taught these children that 'prayer and sacrifice' will bring peace to our families and world. Begin planning for this 'Eucharistic and Marian Pilgrimage' giving students the opportunity to pray for peace in their own families and all the families of the world. This Holy Hour gives a unique opportunity to spiritually unite with children throughout the world. To RSVP email Kathleen Fitzpatrick at FatimaHolyHour@gmail.com.
