World Youth Day UNITE: All young adults and families are invited to World Youth Day UNITE taking place on Saturday, July 22. It will feature artists Audrey Assad and Tony Melendez, TED-style talks by dynamic Catholic bishops, and opportunities for Confession and Adoration. A Vigil Mass will be celebrated by Cardinal Donald Wuerl, Archbishop of Washington. The festival theme this year, chosen by Pope Francis, is "The Mighty One Has Done Great Things for Me and Holy is His Name." The event will take place at the Saint John Paul II National Shrine in Washington, DC from 11:30am-10:00pm. Register online at www.wydunite.com/register.

Happy 4th of July: On Tuesday, our Parish Office is closed. We celebrate the birthday of our nation, the day when our founding fathers courageously declared independence from a monarchy that had become tyrannical. It is the day when we rightly celebrate our freedom. On July 4th, 1776, the Declaration of Independence was signed in Philadelphia. We celebrate that day every year with picnics, gatherings of family and friends, parades and fireworks. It is also a day to thank God for our freedom and to pray for our nation, something recommended by John Adams, who, on the day after signing the Declaration of Independence, wrote that July 4th "ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty." God bless America!

Fatima Worldwide Children's Holy Hour at the Basilica: The International World Apostolate of Fatima's children's program, Children of the Eucharist, Young Missionaries of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, cordially invites everyone to gather your children and make a pilgrimage to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, on Friday, October 13, 10:00am. This will mark the 15th annual Worldwide Children's Eucharistic Holy Hour, in honor of the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima. EWTN will broadcast to over 140 nations. As you know on this recent May 13th. at Fatima, Portugal, the Holy Father Pope Francis canonized the Little Shepherds of Fatima, now Saint Francisco Marto and Saint Jacinta Marto. At Fatima, our Blessed Mother taught these children that 'prayer and sacrifice' will bring peace to our families and world. Begin planning for this 'Eucharistic and Marian Pilgrimage' giving students the opportunity to pray for peace in their own families and all the families of the world. This Holy Hour gives a unique opportunity to spiritually unite with children throughout the world. To RSVP email Kathleen Fitzpatrick at FatimaHolyHour@gmail.com

Marriage Preparation Program: Rockville, MD. July 22, 9:00 - 4:30pm. The Sacramental Preparation for Marriage program is designed to complement the preparation you are receiving from the priest or deacon that will witness your marriage. It is only one piece, albeit a very important one, of the six-month preparation required by the Archdiocese of Washington. We encourage you to look into taking a pre-marital assessment tool (such as the FOCCUS or Prepare/Enrich tools) and/or to request a mentor couple in your parish to meet with and discuss your up-coming marriage. Because marriage is a vocation, a call to holiness, our purpose and goal is to offer you some important information you will need regarding your upcoming marriage in the Catholic Church. Two consecutive Saturdays, 9:00 – 4:30 pm (July 22 and 29) To Register: Please email to flm@adw.org or call Course Office at 301-853-5334

Respect Life News: The harmful fallout of physician assisted suicide and euthanasia where either practice is legal, regrettably, can be easily illustrated. In Canada, for example, two months ago, the government of the province of Ontario voted that doctors and nurses must (italics added) participate in euthanasia and assisted suicide if a patient requests it. Mary Jean Martin, a Registered Nurse in Ontario, with 30 years of experience, refused to comply and no longer has a job. As an employee of the government run Local Health Integrated Network, she was told that all healthcare workers would be required to take an oath to observe and comply with the laws of Canada including the euthanasia and assisted suicide law. If they do not sign or take the oath, their noncompliance is taken as an automatic resignation from their position. When she told her superior she could not sign such an oath since she did not agree with the euthanasia and assisted suicide law, she added that she could not even minimally help anyone to kill him or herself or even refer them to someone who would. As a Christian, she declared: “I would rather resign than compromise on my beliefs.” We note another Orwellian development resulting from the legalizing of euthanasia and assisted suicide in the first country in the world to do so, the Netherlands, in 2001(taking effect in 2002). Even one of that country's very well-known euthanasia advocates, Boudewijn Chabot, who wrote recently that he's not disturbed if the number of people asking to be euthanized “exceeds tens of thousands in a few years” [!] but that he does “worry” about the increase of patients with dementia being euthanized, “from 12 in 2009 to 141 in 2016, and chronic psychiatric patients from 0 to 60” (National Right to Life News, 6.19.17; the U.K Society for the Protection of Unborn Children (SPUC) news report, 6.22.2017).
